Re: application for Canadian passport

Dear Mr. Leal:

Please find, enclose, the application form for a Canadian passport which you had provided for me to complete in order for me to obtain a travel document from the Canadian Consulate.

I have completed the application to the best of my ability, providing only true and correct information. However, please note the following points:

1. I cannot provide a signature in section 1 because I am not a Canadian citizen.
2. Section 1 also asks for my surname at birth and my former surname. I decline to provide this information on the grounds that I may incriminate myself. As I have stated in the past: in 1996 I changed my name. I am not required under any law to provide my name prior to that time.
3. I cannot provide proof of Canadian citizenship as required for section 4 because I am not a Canadian citizen.
4. I currently have no documents to support identity as required by section 5.
5. I have been in custody for 3½ years, and so, have not worked in the last 2 years.
6. I do not know with certainty my mother's maiden name. I do not know my mother.
7. I have not references who have known me for at least two years and who can state with any certainty any information about me.

If you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to contact me. I do request, however, that you present any such inquiries in writing in order to create a proper record of our communication.

Sincerely,

Richard Riess
