Re: desicapuano.com website

Dear Mr. MacMahon:

So? The DESICAPUANO.COM website is still there; there on the internet; publicly accessible. And all the disclosure material from that case about me leaving BC in violation of the probation order - including your statements to, and correspondence with the VPD and the Crown Counsel, are on there.

You'll probably try to console yourself by saying something like "Yeah, and you're in jail for it." And my response to that is: So, it doesn't change the fact that the website is still online. Which means you and all those other painfully annoying, misguided feminists have failed!

And I expect you believe I am writing this letter because I am hoping to gain publicity for the website. That is incorrect, I don't believe that you or News 1130 or City News have enough clout or audience to make a difference - and the audience you DO have is too weak minded to matter to me any way.

No, the only reason for this letter is to gloat and to make sure that you are aware that the website you find so disturbing and offensive is still there and that you are now on it. At some point I will be sure to publish a nice editorial expressing my opinion of you and your work.

Cheers,

Patrick Fox

P.S. And of course I'm going to put a copy of all of our correspondence on the site.
